Kentler International Drawing Space, founded by artists in 1990, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit exhibition space that presents exhibitions of important contemporary drawings and work on paper by emerging and under-recognized local, national and international artists as part of the cultural fabric of the community. We encourage dialogue and interaction between exhibiting artists and the public while providing artists with the opportunity to experiment, explore and expand the definition of art in society. Flatfiles of drawings and works on paper by over 160 artists are available for viewing by the general public by appointment.

* Jonathan Ames is the author of eight books, including Wake Up, Sir! and the graphic novel The Alcoholic, illustrated by Dean Haspiel. His novel, The Extra Man, was turned into a film starring Kevin Kline and was released in 2010. Mr. Ames is also the winner of a Guggenheim Fellowship and is the creator of the HBO series, Bored to Death, which will begin its third season in 2011.

 Emmy award winning artist, Dean Haspiel, is a native New Yorker who created the Eisner Award nominated Billy Dogma, the semi-autobiographical Street Code, and helped pioneer personal webcomics with the invention of ACT-I-VATE. Dean has drawn many great superhero and semi-autobiographical comic books published by Marvel, DC/Vertigo, Dark Horse, Image, Scholastic, Toon Books, Top Shelf, and the New York Times, including collaborations with Harvey Pekar, Jonathan Ames, and Inverna Lockpez, and illustrates for HBO's Bored to Death. www.deanhaspiel.com. Kentler premiered an exhibition of Haspiel's original drawings with Inverna Lockpez's drawings for the graphic novel Cuba My Revolution in 2010.
