Kentler International Drawing Space is proud to present Circumstances: Selections from the Kentler Flatfiles, curated by Holly Shen Chaves and Rachel Nackman.

The artists featured in Circumstances were selected from the Kentler Flatfiles using a chance-based process inspired by John Cage's seminal employment of the I Ching, or Book of Changes, an ancient Chinese oracular text. When making selections from the Flatfiles, curators Holly Shen Chaves and Rachel Nackman took procedural cues from Cage in consulting the I Ching as a guide. Their rejection of curatorial responsibility in favor of a predetermined system allowed the curators to discover, explore, and accept their selections with open objectivity.

A chance-based selection presented a means both to experience the deliberate impartiality of the Cagean method and to highlight the remarkable diversity of works on paper contained in the Kentler Flatfiles, a repository of artwork by over 200 artists. The result of this process is a fascinating exhibition of 43 drawings, prints and artist's books by 32 artists. These fated works bear striking relationships to one another as well as to the concepts of chance and experimentation.

The artists represented in Circumstances are: Ernst Benkert, Hedwig Brouckaert, Juan Carlos, Beth Caspar, Osvaldo Ramirez Castillo, Annette Cords, Aaron Drew, Elizabeth Duffy, Rebecca Forster, Abby Goldstein, Molly Heron, John Himmelfarb, Richard Howe, Nene Humphrey, Dragan Ilic, Tamiko Kawata, Kumi Korf, Karen Kunc, Rejin Leys, LUCE, Peter Matthews, Karen Helga Maurstig, Meridith McNeal, Tina Olsen, Debra Pearlman, Mimmo Roselli, Sepideh Salehi, Claudia Sbrissa, Robert Sestok, Terise Slotkin, Thomas Vinton, and Dale Williams.

The curators' working documents and charts are on display in the gallery along with further description of their process. A brochure with a critical essay by Holly Shen Chaves and Rachel Nackman also accompanies the exhibition.
