Welcome to our third 100 Works on Paper Benefit May 19, 2005

One ticket equals one work of art.
A Drawing determines the order for choosing.

Ticket Holders draw a ticket number upon arrival.
When your number is called, you may choose from the remaining works in the front gallery. Your piece will be removed from the wall and you can have it packaged in the back space.

There are also artworks in our Silent Auction.
Bidding will continue until 9pm.

*Over 100 drawings and works on paper
by Artists from Brooklyn and beyond!*

The Drawing will begin at 6:45.

Introductions by Florence Neal, Executive Director
Liz Koch with greetings from the Brooklyn Borough President Remarks by:

P. K. Ramani, Board of Directors
Nancy Barber, Benefit Co-Chair
Master of Ceremonies: Gregory Purnhagen

The Drawing will continue until all names are drawn.
We invite you to enjoy the refreshments and conversation with friends and art connoisseurs while waiting for your name to be called.

Thank you for supporting the arts and realizing the importance of this vital exhibition space for drawings and work on paper,
and also congratulations!

SILENT AUCTION:

Spencer Finch   Rene Lynch   Richard Mock Tom Otterness   Kiki Smith   William Stone

Benefit proceeds will contribute to the exhibitions and events of the Kentler International Drawing Space.

The Kentler International Drawing Space Inc. is a 501(c)(3) not for profit exhibition space. Founded by artists in 1990, the gallery presents important and timely contemporary exhibitions of drawings and work on paper to the public, by artists nationally and internationally, as part of the cultural fabric of a community. The gallery encourages artists to experiment, explore, and expand the definitions of art, creating the opportunity for dialogue and interaction. A flatfile of work on paper is available for viewing by the public.
